With reference to your Memo No. 475/70-21 dated 26/28th M 1921 forwarding copy of Chief Secretary's letter No.G. 17931/ dated 21st March 1921 requesting to intimate if a batch of fiv convicts can be made available for work at each of the margina noted Government Buildings etc., I have th honor to state as follows.:-

Kumara Park.
Ballorcole.

2. The number of convicts eligible for extramural employment as per Rule 369 of the Mysore Jail i very limited at present. For this reason and also on account o paucity of warders, the full compliment of convicts is not bei sent to the Palace also. Further, there is great demand for th supply of prisoners' clothing etc., to various Lock-ups in the State, and as such extra number of convicts is employed to pre prison clothing. Besides, convicts from the District of Hassan are not being received in this Jail as before.

3. Under these circumstances, it is very hard to get the additional number of prisoners for work, permanently, in t places mentioned in the Chief Secretary's letter under adverta
